Volunteer Opportunity

Surveying Washington Park Visitors on August 15th and 16th

Washington Park needs your help! Are you outgoing and friendly? Do you care about the future of Washington Park? Join the Washington Park TMA, Portland Parks and Recreation, and PSU research staff to collect important data on Park visitors and help be a part of shaping one of Portland's most beloved places.

When: On August 15th and 16th, Washington Park will be conducting a random sample intercept survey of Park visitors. Volunteers must attend the training and at least one shift.

Training:

August 15th
8:00 AM – 10:00 AM

Shift 1:

August 15th
10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Shift 2:

August 16th
9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

What:

Volunteers are needed to administer surveys to visitors at key locations in the park. It is important that you feel comfortable approaching strangers in a friendly and non-biased way.

Where:

Two volunteers are needed during each shift at the following sampling locations. Efforts will be made to place volunteers at the location they request.

- The Oregon Zoo
- The Portland Children's Museum
- The World Forestry Center
- Hoyt Arboretum
- The Rose Garden
- Portland Japanese Garden

Additional Information:

Volunteers will be provided name tags, identifiable clothing, necessary survey materials, snacks and refreshments and will be fully supported throughout the effort. Lunch will be provided at the end of the shift on August 16th. For more information, or to sign up for shifts and the training, please contact Andrew Pelsma at Andrew@WashingtonParkPDX.org or by phone at 503-416-2411 to provide your contact information, availability, and preferred location.
